

KiK makes the Difference Scholarship

CALL FOR APPLICATION

A new scholarship programme has been launched at BRUR, which is funded by the German retailer KiK and supported by the German Development Agency GIZ. The scholarship aims to deliberately support and contribute to the achievement of Bangladesh' national targets for the development of education – promoting access to higher education for lower income groups and women.

Benefits included in the scholarship

- Monthly allowance/stipend up to a maximum of 36 months (subject to passing/promotion)
- A laptop and/or IT equipment for study
- Higher education and career planning related training and advise
- Prospect of potential scholarship support for a semester abroad (for Masters)

Who can apply?

- Economically disadvantaged undergraduate students from 2nd year at BRUR can apply
- Students who passed the previous semesters can apply

It is notable that, applicants from socio-economic disadvantaged backgrounds, especially female students, are given priority for this scholarship.

Students of any academic record can apply as socio-economic criteria will be given priority in awarding this scholarship.

Students from UCEP Bangladesh can directly apply for the scholarship from the first year/ at the time of admission at university.

Selection Criteria

- Student's socio-economic background and previous life struggles
- Social, family responsibilities and activities
- Satisfactory results

Along with good grades and academic achievements, we focus on taking responsibility for a family and the successful mastering of obstacles in one's own life and educational path.

In addition to special successes at school and/or university, social engagement will be considered.
